

Privacy Practices

Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

If you have any questions about this notice, please contact our Privacy Officer at (904)269-0500. Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed understands your privacy is important. This Privacy Notice describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to control your protected health information. Protected health information (PHI) is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health condition or payment.

Understanding Your Health Record/Information

Each time you visit a hospital, physician, or other healthcare provider, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains personal demographic information, your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, and a plan for future care or treatment. This information, often referred to as your health or medical record, serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment;
- Means of communication among the many health professionals who contribute to your care;
- Legal document describing the care you received;
- Means by which you or a third party payer can verify that services billed were actually provided;
- A tool in educating health professionals;
- A source of data for medical research;
- A source of information for public health officials charged with improving the health of the nation;
- A source of data for facility planning and marketing; and
- A tool with which we can assess and continually work to improve the care we render and the outcomes we achieve.

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to:

- Ensure its accuracy;
- Better understand who, what, when, where and why others may access your health information;
- Make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Your Health Information Rights:

Although your health record is the physical property of the healthcare practitioner or facility that compiled it, the information belongs to you. You have the right to:

- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your information as provided by 45 CFR 164.522. However, we are not required to agree to the restriction;
- Inspect and copy your health record as provided for in 45 CFR 164.524 and Florida law. Usually this includes medical and billing records, but does not include psychotherapy notes. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request.
- Amend your health record as provided in 45 CFR 164.526. To request an amendment, your request must be in writing and must provide a reason that supports your request. We may deny your request if you ask to amend information that:
 - Was not created by us;
 - Is not part of the medical information kept by Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed;
 - Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect or copy; or
 - Is accurate or complete.
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as provided in 45 CFR 164.528. To request this list or accounting of disclosures, your request must be in writing and must state the time period which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 13, 2003.
- Request communications of your health information by alternative means or at alternative locations;
- Receive confidential communications of protected health information as provided in 45 CFR 164.522 (b), as applicable;
- Revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information except to the extent that action has already been taken.
- Restrict the release of protected health information to your health plan if you are paying out of pocket in full. 45 CFR 164.522(a)(1)(vi).
- Restrict disclosure related to genetic testing for insurance underwriting purposes.

Copies of the regulations cited above may be requested from the Privacy Officer by calling (904)269-0500.

Our Responsibilities:

Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information;
- Provide you with a notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you;
- Abide by the terms of this notice;
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction;
- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- Notify affected individuals following a breach of unsecured protected health information in writing.

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information change significantly, we will post the new notice in each Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed location as well as on our Web site: www.primemed4u.com. You may also request a copy of our notice at any time.

For More Information or to Report a Problem

If have questions and would like additional information, you may contact the Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed Privacy Officer at (904) 269-0500.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you can file a complaint by contacting the Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed Privacy Officer or you may send a written complaint to the Secretary, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed Privacy Officer can provide you with the appropriate address upon request. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint.

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations

We will use your health information for treatment. For example, information obtained by a nurse, physician or other member of your healthcare team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Different departments within Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed may share medical information about you in order to coordinate different services you need, such as prescriptions, lab work and X-rays. We may also disclose medical information about you to people outside Neurotech, Inc./PrimeMed who may be involved in your medical care, such as hospitals, long-term care facilities, ambulatory surgery centers or home health agencies. We will also provide a referring physician or a subsequent healthcare provider with copies of various reports that should assist him/her in treating you.

We will use your health information for payment. For example, a bill may be sent to you or an insurance company (third party payer). The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures and supplies used. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.

We will use your health information for regular healthcare operations. For example, in day-to-day business practices, trained staff may handle your physical medical record in order to have the record assembled or for filing reports into your record. Certain data elements are entered into our computer system that processes most billing, schedules your appointments and for statistical reporting. As part of our improvement efforts to provide the most effective services, your record may be reviewed by professional staff to assure accuracy, completeness and organization. This information may be shared by facsimile transmission.

Other Uses or Disclosures

Business Associates: There are some services provided in our organization through contacts with business associates. Examples include our using an outside transcription service to type physicians' dictated notes or a copy service we may use when making copies of your health record. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to our business associates so that they can perform the job we've asked them to do. So that your health information is protected, however, we require the business associate to agree in writing to appropriately safeguard your information.

Communication with Family: Health professionals, using their best judgment, may disclose to a family member, other relative, close personal friend or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care or payment related to your care.

Research: We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an Institutional Review Board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors: We may disclose health information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death. We may also release medical information about patients to funeral directors consistent with applicable law to carry out their duties.

Organ Procurement Organizations: If you are an organ donor, we may disclose health information to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking, or transplantation of organs for the purpose of tissue donation and transplant.

Marketing: We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Fundraising: We
